THE BEST IS ALWAYS '01

To the Graduating Class of 2001:

As we embark on the journey of our lives, there will be many decisions along the way that will determine where we go and how successful we will become. Here are a few thoughts that will help you along the course of your journey:

1. Put God first; remember He is your best friend and all things are possible through Him.
2. You will not be able to please everyone, but if you follow your heart you won't go wrong.
3. Trust yourself; never compromise who you are or what you believe in for someone else.
4. True friends are special people, because everybody needs someone.
5. What happens tomorrow depends upon today, so remember if you say "I can't," you won't; if you say "I quit," you lose; but if you say, "I'll try," you might just win. You have the power to choose.
6. Never be afraid to DREAM, to BELIEVE, to TRY, or to SUCCEED!!

Remember when life knocks you to your knees, you're in the perfect place for prayer.

I hope all of you have happy and successful lives.
Good luck on your journey; always reach for the stars!

May God Bless You,
Ashley Blair Keen

Lisa Wyatt

Jon Maxwell

*Lisa Wyatt is the daughter of Tony and Rhonda Wyatt.
Jon Maxwell is the son of Johnny and Debbie Maxwell.*

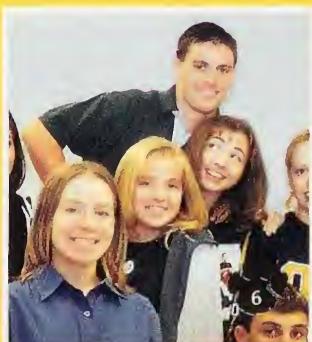

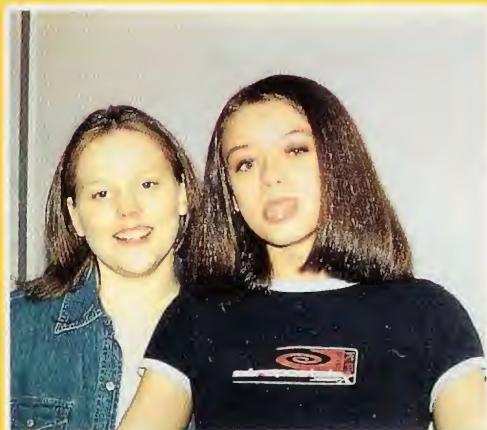

This year was full of new beginnings. As we walked through the doors of our new high school, we all felt like freshmen. The school was strange and different from what we had been used to. The air smelled of sawdust and fresh paint, the three long halls looked as if they went on forever, and the chandelier towered above our heads as we walked through the front doors. We had new obstacles to face, such as finding our classrooms, figuring out how to open our lockers, and making our way through the hectic lunch lines only to find out that we had forgotten our lunch numbers. To save us all from potential disaster was our new principal, Mr. Robert Myracle. This year was just the start of our new beginnings for all the students at Riverside High School, especially the SENIORS! I have to say that the senior class of 2001 is the best senior class to ever walk these halls of Riverside!

— Pamela Bartholomew

- 1.) Seniors all riled up.
- 2.) Mr. Willis: How many RHS seniors does it take ...
- 3.) If he smooches on the skeleton, just think what he does to the animals we dissect.
- 4.) Freshmen Faces!
- 5.) Mrs. Jill's pride and joy!
- 6.) What's my lunch number?
- 7.) Wassup??!

First Impressions

- 1.) Julia to Jon: Did you wear deodorant today?!?
- 2.) Sometimes you feel like a nut ...
- 3.) Senior guys who think they are HOT stuff!
- 4.) Kyle doing what he does best.
- 5.) Soapy Seniors
- 6.) Jill: I've developed a new growth; its name is Will.

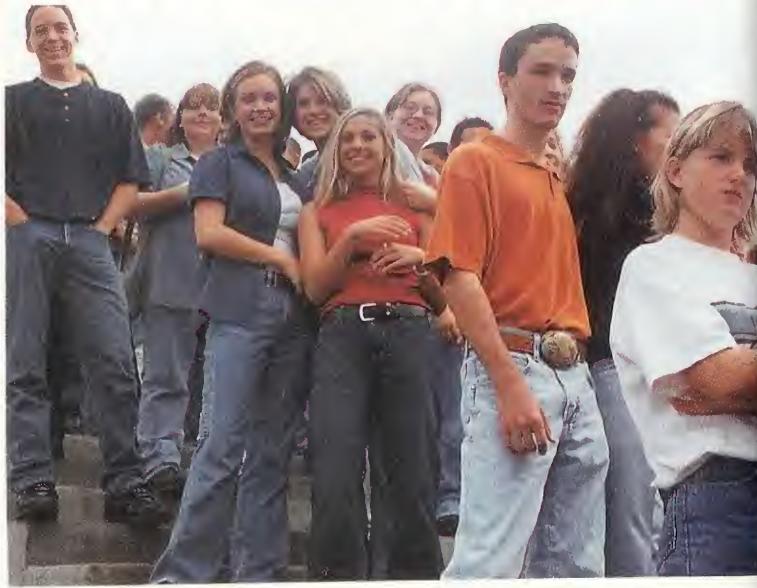

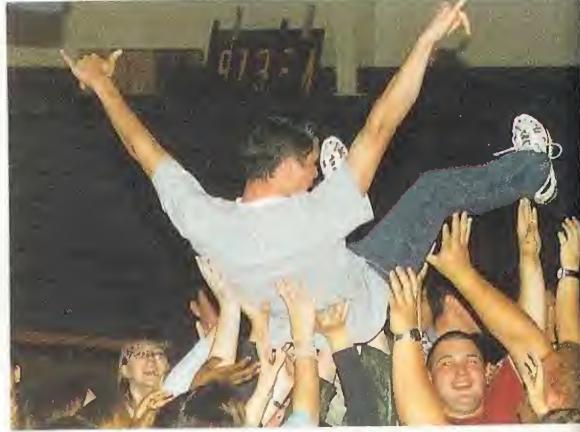

Through the years we all have had some type of new beginning. Whether it be starting kindergarten, going to our first day of high school, or even moving to a new town or school, all of us have had to undergo many changes and get used to new people and places. This year we all went through a major change — we got a new school. It is often difficult for us to get used to new things, especially when we are used to doing things a certain way or have just gotten used to the "swing" of things. For many of us, the new school was difficult to get used to. We had new rules, teachers, desks, and even a new bell tone. I don't know about everyone else, but I found it all a little overwhelming. Now I, like everyone else, feel as if I have always gone to school here. We still have the same friends, pep rallies, and dances, so we finally figured out that hardly anything has changed at all. Change happens; there is nothing we can do to stop it, and sometimes we don't even notice when it does happen. I have realized that no matter what our paths may lead us to do, there will always be some type of change or new beginning in our future. Good Luck, Class of 2001! May all the change in your lives be for the good.

Band Director
Mr. Tobias Hayes

The work of this band is made up of the many hours of practice and dedication that the members put forth during the course of the year. In field shows, parades, competitions, and concerts, a lot of music was orchestrated and performed to the band's best. Many of the members also participated in Honor Band, Solo and Ensemble, and All-West; all of which demonstrated the love for music that these students have and the hard work they are willing to put forth to do their best.

Thank you, band, for a great year.

Seniors Ashley Keen, Brooke Goodman, and Chrissy Young were chosen to be among the twelve representatives for the state of Tennessee that traveled to Seattle this past summer to participate in the TRUTH summit. They spent their time making new friends, going to workshops, learning about the tactics of the tobacco industry, and finding ways to use what they had learned in their communities. However, it wasn't all work and no play. There was a Blink 182 concert held just for the TRUTH summit teens, as well as many other different activities for them to participate in.

Cowboy's Prayer

Heavenly Father, we pause, mindful of the many blessings you have bestowed upon us. We ask that you be with us at this rodeo, and we pray that you will guide us in the arena of life.

We don't ask for special favors. We don't ask to draw around a chute-fighting horse or never break a barrier. Nor do we ask for all daylight runs or not to draw a steer that lies down.

Help us, Lord, to live our lives in such a manner that when we make that final ride to that country up there where the grass grows lush and green, stirrup-high, and water runs cool, clear, and deep — that you as our last and final Judge will tell us that our entry fee is paid.

AMEN.

Community

On behalf of the 134 students pictured below, along with the 343 other students enrolled at RHS, the 2001 yearbook staff wishes to express its appreciation to the following:

- Parents, advertisers, anonymous donors, Mike Fesmire, Photography, and Finelight Photography for financial support.
- Nelda Pritchard, Decatur County Chronicle, The News Leader, the Decatur County Education Foundation, and our professional photographers for pictures.
- Tim Wilson, Robert Myracle, Larry Barrett, Marty Willis, Terry Turnbo, Renee Swift, Glenda Moore, Michael Vestal, Onita Boggan, Beth Spence, Annette Haggard, Jean Myracle, Michael Box, Cathy Keen, Gloria Gant, RHS office workers, and our Jostens "support group" — Johnny Lovier, Lee Persinger, Karin Hult, and the other members of the Jostens team — for assistance in the production of the yearbook.
- And to the rest of the Riverside faculty and staff, thanks for putting up with us. Producing a yearbook really is community effort. We couldn't have done it without you.

Ginger,

I loved you before I met you; it was the best birthday a mother could ever have. You were and are a very special little girl, daughter, and — as you have grown up — a special friend. I am very proud of you and will always be. Can't believe the time has gone by so fast; seems like yesterday you couldn't wait to go to school — now you are a senior.

I want to wish you the very best in whatever you choose to do and remember I'll always be there for you.

I LOVE YOU,
Mama

Brother — For Jacob

When I think of the word "Brother" you hold a place in my heart,
Nothing on God's green Earth will ever tear us apart.

The time we have had has gone too fast,
Only the memories we have made will last.

When I say this, it is no lie,
For you I would lay down my life and die.

Every time you read this — what I say,
Know I love you every second of the day.

To My Son

by Kathryn Higginbottom Gorin

When you were very, very small
I used to dance with you cradled in my arms
You were my precious angel
And holding you close
Love overwhelmed me

I wondered what kind of life you would lead
What would be your first word, your first job
What kind of man you would become
And if your life would take you far from me

And I'd hold you even closer
Giving you an extra kiss, an extra hug
And whispering "I love you" one more time
Knowing you were too small to remember
But, praying you would never forget

There are days when I long to hold you
In my arms and dance once again

Although I miss my little boy
I am so proud of everything you are
And of the man you will become
My love for you still overwhelms me

As we both grow older
Please never forget
What you were too small ... to remember.

Love, Mom

Ashley,

Our wonderful friend and daughter, the day you were born, you were sent to Le Bonheur. This was a very scary time for us; finally, we got to bring our special miracle from God home.

You have blessed our lives so tremendously. If we had been given a choice of all the daughters in the world, our choice would have been so easy. God had created this beautiful, dark-haired baby especially for us.

Watching you grow throughout the years, from your first steps and your little boo-boos and your shiny little teeth, to the pathways you have walked with your brother — these are the memories we hold dear in our hearts.

We are so proud of the person you've become. We hope life gives you all the treasures you deserve.

Keep God in your life and in the paths you walk — He will be there too.

Love,
Your Mom & Dad

P.S. Bubba said when we brought you home, "My baby." Now he says, "Let it rip, tater chip."

Good luck! Have fun!

Ray,

My, my how time can fly so fast. Since the day you were born you've been special to us. As our grandchild #6, we've helped raise you the best that grandparents can. We look at you and it amazes us all — "How could such a small boy get so big and tall?" We've tried to help you overcome the many obstacles that have been in your life. We've watched you laugh, cry, grow, and learn. In those little boy days we became best friends and played all the games that grandparents can. Before we knew it, you started to school. Although you didn't want to go, you got on the bus after a kick in the rocks and tears in your eyes. You knew your dad was watching like a spy. You have fulfilled all our dreams of being a good student and a star on the team. You have made us so proud of the fine young man you have become. Every day you keep growing nearer and dearer to our hearts. We wish for you good health and happiness in the years to come.

Your Mom would be so proud of the handsome young man you have become.

A pretty little girl in dresses with buttons and bows — a beautiful girl so precious from her head to her toes. As we watched you grow up, the memories we treasure. You'll always be special — you have given us so much pleasure. We sit and daydream of all the things we've done. The years have passed so quickly, but they were so much fun, especially when you wanted to show us how fast you could run. When you started to school — we were kinda sad — because we would miss all the fun we had. I have gone near and far to watch you play all the games that made you a star. We're all behind you with love and respect. Although we don't know what to expect, we know you've got the intelligence and drive to take the world on and survive. You are grandchild #5, and we love you very much. We wish for you good health and happiness in the years to come.

Emily,
Little did we know what was in store for us those eighteen years ago when you came into our lives. We knew instant love and felt appreciation to God for the wonderful gift that He let us have.

You have become a fine young woman and have so much to look forward to in the years to come. Your feet are planted firmly on the ground and you have a good idea of where you want to go. Always let God be your spiritual guide and know that wherever you go, no matter how far, that Daddy and I will always be here for you.

You have made us proud and continue to do so every day. We could not have asked for a more wonderful daughter.

Many major events are in your future, but you are ready — GO FOR IT!!!!!!!

Thank you for letting us share all your love, laughter, and tears, but most of all for being your parents. Ask God to help you make all those decisions the world has to offer and we know they will be the right ones. Keep up the good work and you will go far!

Kacie Crosby

Kacie,

We already had two great kids so far, and when God blessed us with another one, we knew you would be a star. A sweet baby girl, so tender and small, the day you were born you scared us all. Off to Le Bonheur, the doctor said. Immediately, I'm going with her, I arose from my bed. To the hospital we went with tears in our eyes, he said she'll be all right, but I didn't let you out of my sight. So special to us we already knew. Your first steps you took, we were so proud of you. It didn't take long until you started to dance. Gymnastics and ballet you would prance. Your first day of school, Mrs. Valerie was great. She put her arm around you and made you feel safe. 1st grade came and you were so smart. Put her in a split grade, they said from the start. 3rd grade came and you got the citizenship award. What proud parents you made us when we saw your picture on that board. You needed more of a challenge, I guess you saw. Ms. Jean started piano lessons in the 4th grade. Piano was great, but cheerleading looked fun. Outside you would practice all day in the sun. You tried out for cheerleading and conquered that, too. In 6th and 7th grade that was enough for you. Enough of that though, how about playing ball? Summer came and on that pitchers' mound you stood tall. You finished that year and made an "all star"; you did great at everything so far. Then you met Elijah and suddenly we knew that playing guitar had to be you. We would turn up the TV, but music you would play. Downstairs we sat hearing this all, wondering if a fight would break out. So we stayed on call. You turned 16 and bought a red Mustang and hit the town. We would pray you'd be safe as you rode around. Three months later you crashed under the red light; that day you gave us all a fright. One thing's for sure — you had a job that suited you: Denim Country, running those tanning beds. We would keep an eye on you. I'll never forget all those trips to Nashville. We drove lots of miles, but one thing's for sure, I love to see that million-dollar smile. Now working at the Florist, you've learned a lot, too. Like fish won't make it in the back of big blue. Kacie, we are so proud of you in every way and we thank God for you every day. You are graduating now; it seems you've proven you can do anything. So just follow your dreams.

We love you,
Momma and Daddy

Dear Nonie,

You are one of the twelve blessings God has given us to cherish, as you know, through the years. We are so very proud of you. May God bless and keep you in His care. May He also lead, guide, and direct you in whatever you do and wherever your footsteps may roam.

*We Love You,

Tony,

From day one we have had love and admiration for you. As you grew through the years, you have always been very special and an outstanding person to us. May God bless and guide you. Congratulations!

*LOVE,
Granddaddy and Grandmama*

Tony,

Well, we made it through the young years in one piece. Well, I did; all the whoopins you gave me started to take effect. But I thank you for it all, I think, and I hope we have many good years down the road. Keep whoopin' 'em in football and PLEASE take care of THE TANK so when I get her she'll be ready to go. Brooke,

You finally made it. The last two years we've spent together have been the best years of my life. Maybe you enjoyed them as much as I have. I hope there are many more to come.

I wish you luck in everything you do. I will always be there for you no matter what happens. Thank you for changing my life, because without you I would be lost. Always believe in yourself. Remember to follow and trust God and He will lead you the right way. You have my everlasting love.

Johnna,

On graduation day, while everyone else sees a young lady, your Dad and I will remember a baby being placed in our arms so perfect and so small. We will remember a toddler dressed in ruffles and pinafores, leaving handprints on the walls. Then in your childhood the memories flood — your love of animals, riding horses, competing in beauty pageants, 4-H events, Christmases and proms. We're proud of all your accomplishments but love you because you're you. You achieved most of the goals you set out for yourself, but now comes a whole new life. Your childhood years will comfort us as you begin your new journey. May it bring you joy as you have brought us joy.
Congratulations!

Lisa,

This is your last year of school. Seems like just yesterday you were that beautiful little baby winning beauty contests. Pa Pa and I were so proud of you. Now you will soon be graduating and going to college or getting married and having a life of your own. Always put God first in your life and everything else will be all right. I hope you are happy in whatever you choose to do. (Oh, by the way, do you remember always telling me, "Granny, I don't like that," and I would always tell you about kids that were less fortunate than you. I hope your kids are just like you were. Then you can tell them about those kids.) Wish you all the luck and happiness in life in whatever you choose to do. We are proud of you and will always love you.

Love,

Dear Brent,

You have been a great blessing to us since the day you were born. We have always been proud of you and your endless desire to participate in so many activities. Honestly, there have been times when we thought we just could not keep up with you, but somehow we made it. We cherish the memories from the "short sailing lesson," horse riding, horse shows, 4-H activities, band practice and trips, FFA activities, karate, gymnastics, and homework assignments that always seemed to be finished at the "Eleventh Hour." In all this you always had time to talk to or help someone. Thank you for giving us so many memories and letting us be involved. Always remember your dad's favorite Bible verse:

"In All Thy Ways Acknowledge Him
And He Shall Direct The Paths." Proverbs 3:5-6

Congratulations on your achievements!

Joanie Broadway

To Our "Sunshine,"

Joanie, how did you get all grown up so fast? It's hard to believe our beautiful, curly-haired, blue-eyed baby is a senior and getting ready to make her mark in this big world. It was only yesterday you came to us; yes, you were quite a surprise, but such a wonderful blessing and addition to our family.

You have always been happy and smiling. Each new day has been filled with adventure. Your favorite thing to do was to catch me on the phone and make your great escape out the front door and down the drive to your daddy's shop, where you knew there would be a tractor ride or a trip to the store. And the day I tried to potty train you was quite a task. I would try to explain, "the pot," and you insisted it was "hot" and ran away. However, you did think it was a wonderful place to bathe your baby dolls. You kept all of us on our toes, and of course out of the four of us there was always one that would let you have your way.

We are all so proud of the wonderful and lovely young lady you have become. Always hold on to your dreams and goals and keep the Lord first in your life, and you will always be successful in seeing those dreams and goals become a reality. We love you and are so proud to call you "daughter." Congratulations —

Love, Mom

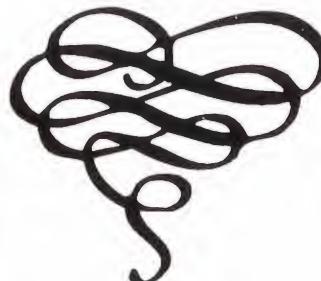

To Daddy's Sunshine,

I don't really know where to start, but suppose a good place would be when the doctor placed you in my arms; I knew at the moment you were special. I remember the time when you were about four years old — I was real sad sitting on the couch and you came up to me and said, "I bet you want to hold me, don't you?" It was just what I needed at that moment. And, I am sure you will never forget our joke, why do all blonde go to heaven?

You have brought much sunshine to our home, which reflects your nickname, Sunshine, so very well. I am so proud of you. You have worked hard; not on the farm, but on everything else. Your heart is big enough to love the world. When I see you happy and smiling it brightens up my day.

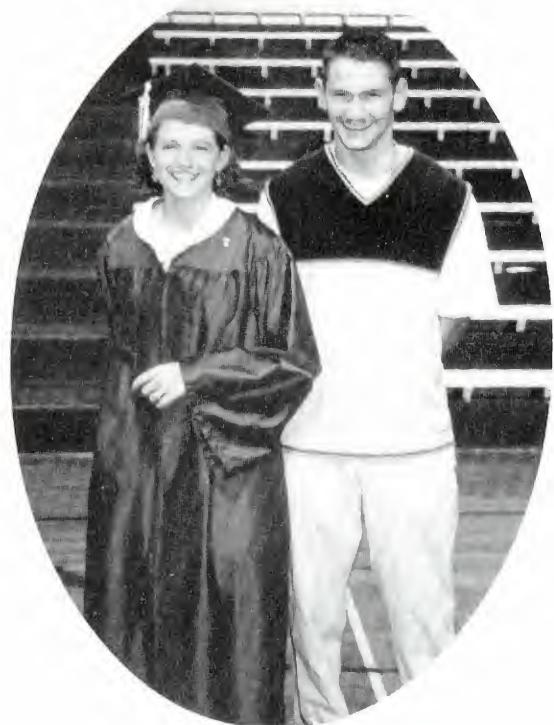

I want you to "go for the gold." Set your goals high as well as your expectations. Never let anyone tell you "you can't," because Dad knows that you can. Just do your best and always know that no matter where you go or what you do, you have a mom and dad praying and lifting you up. Never forget your spiritual heritage, and remember how much we love you.

Love, Dad

Well, what can I say? It seems as if just yesterday we were fighting over who gets to sleep with Mom. I would like to thank you for all the memories you have given me — like the time I tricked you and got to sleep with Mom on Christmas Eve! And playing Barbies and GI Joes together.

You truly are my best friend. You hold my secrets close to your heart and never tell anyone. I adore you for that. I will always look up to you for guidance because you always know the right path for me to take. You are the best thing that ever happened to me. Keep your heart set where it is now and God will help you make the right decisions. "I love you." Best of luck with everything you have planned for your life.

Julia,

Before you were born you were my hopes, dreams, and prayers.

As a child you have always had my hopes, dreams, and prayers.

Now, as a young lady, you have exceeded all of my hopes, dreams, and prayers.

I am not only honored to call you my daughter. I am also honored to call you my friend.

I Love You, Julia.

*Love,
Mama*

Julia,

Congratulations and best wishes in the future! I am very proud of you.

*Love,
Granny*

Julia,

I can't say anyone deserves as much happiness as do you. Your determination and perseverance are to be admired by everyone who knows you. Intelligence and grace have always smiled on you and I know that will continue. You have a wonderful heart, so never be afraid to let it show. You've always been there for me and have been the best sister anyone could hope for. Always remember, I'm here for you and you'll always be in my heart.

*Love,
Ally*

To my baby girl (or "Boy" to your Dad), I can't believe that you're a senior. As I look back over the years, I think of the times with your favorite doll Cricket, softball games, swimming parties with your friends, and your love for animals. Thanks for being a wonderful daughter. Reach for your goals, keeping God first in your life, and everything will work out according to His plan. Good luck at Martin! We'll miss you.

Love,
Daddy & Mama
(and of course Sha-Sha and Harley)

Shelley,
As a chapter of your life ends and a new one begins,
We wish you happiness and success.
Keep God first in all you do,
And you will be richly blessed.

Love,
Uncle Rattler, Aunt Kim, & Jake

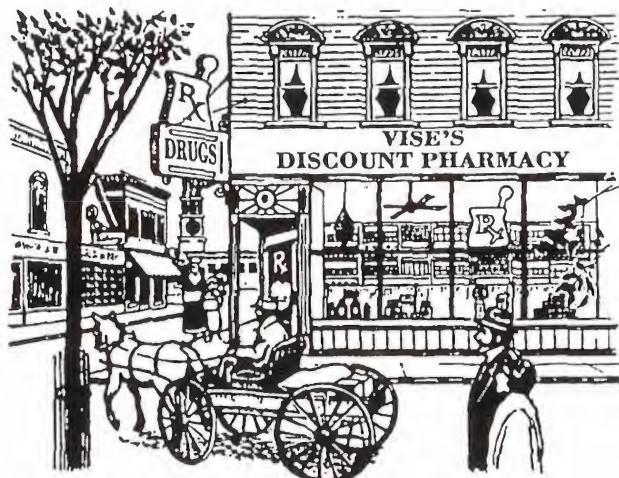

The days of your childhood
are now in the past,
But the memories you left us —
they won't fade as fast.
We had our times at Disney World
and the ball games at UT,
But the times we had at home
with you were actually the key.
So here is to a Granddaughter
who will definitely pass the test.
Love, from your Grandparents,
we wish you the very best.

Daddy T & Grandmother

Shelley,
This is your first major step in life. Believe in yourself and trust God to finish all the goals you have set.

We love you,

Congratulations, John.

We always knew you could make it to graduation. It has been a special blessing to have you in our family; you even "inherited" big brothers' to keep you straight. Always remember "Keep it better in the kitchen Son" and you will do well in life. If there is any one talent you have, it is where you set your mind to do something - you don't know just what has been accomplished.

We are proud of you. Keep your faith and God's love looking upward in life.

Love and Best Wishes,
Dad & Mom

I tried to write you a song
But when sung, it came out wrong

So I tried to write you a poem
But the words just froze on all that prose and try as I might this time
It just wouldn't rhyme

So I just say
CONGRATS! I'm so happy
I'm proud of you and
Best wishes in all the years to come from me to you!

John,

We've had wonderful times together. We sat late watching Western movies when you were just little lad. We've been riding many times over the years; seems like you always caught more than I did. It's really been a blessing to have a little brother like you. It's hard to believe you're already graduating high school, over 6' tall, growing up so so fast.

Just a little advice -- that's what big brothers for. Keep that faith between the brothers. As for your mind on some goals and you can accomplish anything. Remember our ultimate goal is Heaven. God will be there for you so don't leave Him.

Love son,
Tom

HEAVEN'S VERY SPECIAL CHILD

A blessing was held up her from above
"It's time again for another birth,"
said the angels to the LORD above,
This special child will add much love.
Her progress may seem very slow
Her accomplishments will not show
Any small errors she can care
Over the looks she may have down there
She may not do or much of play
Her bright eyes will look quite far away
To many it's just a good idea
And she'll be the one we have all hoped,
So we're glad to see her she's seem to be just like she has a common Name: Shamus, and our parents who will do a special job for her,
A special job respects them both
The babies will always asked to play
But with no will come from above
Game, sports, fun and other more
And soon they'll make me activities go on in caring for this girl from heaven
With pleasure, charge, to make and mold
Is heaven's very special child.

Good luck—Love ya,

Misty,

It seems just like yesterday we brought you home from the hospital. I was so proud of my baby girl. Now, you are a Senior. It's hard to believe! I know you will be leaving for college, and I will miss you very much. You were always there for me if I needed to talk to someone. You're not just my daughter — you're my best friend. I hope you know that Daddy and I will always be there for you. I know that you will succeed in whatever career you choose. You are a smart and intelligent lady. Always remember, God will be watching over you.

We love you very much,

Dear Misty,

Graduation time has finally arrived. We know there were times when you thought that day would never come. As your grandparents, we are very proud of you and all you have accomplished. As you face the many challenges of the future, you will need to rely often on the knowledge you have obtained these past 12 years. Whether you decide to further your education or pursue a career, we want to wish you all the best. May God bless you.

Over the years you've always been there
You've helped me when no one else cared
Your shoulder to cry on will soon be gone
Who will be there when something is wrong
When times are tough, you're always there
It shows me just how much you really care
Although we're going our separate ways
 You're in my heart till my final days
You gave me hope when I thought there was none
We've stayed friends and had a lot of fun
 Nothing could ever make a person see
 Just how special a friend you are to me
 Nothing else could ever fulfill Everything your friendship will
We've been through good and we've been through bad
 You have made me laugh when I was sad
 You know what's wrong before I cry
 But when I do, you always know why
 Our time together is fading away
 More and more every day
 But now until the very end,
 You will always be my very BEST FRIEND!

You'll be going to college
And it will be
Another first time.

Life is made up
Of many first times.
The first time
You ride your bike,
The first time
You fall in love,
The first time
You see your baby's face
And the first time
You realize your little girl
Has become a young woman
Of whom you can be extremely proud.

These are the best, most carefree days of your life ... enjoy them. We are so proud of the young man you have become. Remember to look to God for all the answers in your life, for both the big things and the small. We'll always be here for you, even if you only need a shoulder or a hug. We love you.

To Our Son
It seems like it was yesterday
That we held you when you were a baby.
But time has a way of slipping past us unnoticed.
We closed our eyes for a moment,
and opened them to find you grown.
We miss those days when you spoke your first words, took your first cautious steps, and love and caring were all you needed.
Those were beautiful and precious times.

But now we are finding your grown-up years are beautiful and precious, too.
You are not only our child; you are our friend.
We never realized when you were a baby how close we would be today.
We thought you would always be our baby,
and in a way, you are.

But as you have grown, so has our love for you.
You are sensitive and caring, loving and giving.
You are a person whom people respect and so do we.
We are so proud of you, Anthony, always remember that.
We are so proud to be your parents.

LOVE YOU
DAD & MOM

Anthony,

I am really proud to be your sister and I'm also proud of your hard work and effort that you put into everything you do. Good luck and I love you very much.

Your Little Sister,
Cindy

SOMEONE CARES
When folks seem insensitive
To your never-ending pain,
When no one wants to lend an ear
To hear all that again,
Remember, Someone cares
Who knows just how you feel,
Yes! Someone's always there
Who knows your pain is real!
Jesus can heal the broken heart.
The broken body too.
Reach out and touch the Lord in prayer
By faith, He'll strengthen you!

Blake Campbell

Blake,

You are responsible for your own happiness. No one can make you feel inferior unless you allow them to. People won't stay mad at you for long if you can say, "I was wrong," and, "I am truly sorry. I hope you will forgive me."

When something is troubling you, tell someone you trust instead of trying to keep it to yourself. You will be surprised to learn that the other person has been through something similar.

Don't pass up an opportunity to tell people you care about them. You may never get another chance.

Reserve judgement until you know all the facts. Even then, keep your mouth closed if no useful purpose is served by adding your two cents.

Be grateful for your good health and the health of those you love. Be aware that without good health, money and success mean little.

If you enjoy your work and your life, you are rich. If aren't happy with either, how can money help.

If you are having a rotten day, don't take it out on those around you. Simply say to yourself, "Today is a rotten day. Tomorrow it will be better." That attitude will improve your disposition as well as digestive system.

Don't be afraid to try something you think you can't do. Nothing ventured, nothing gained.

There is no such thing as the perfect man or woman. Look for the best overall combination of kindness, consideration, ambition, and intelligence. Otherwise, you will spend your life alone.

You can learn from other people, even if you don't like them. You can learn something from everybody, because everybody in this world knows something you don't know.

You are and always have been very special to us.

P.S. This is what you always wanted Aunt Tena to bring you. (M&M's)

We Love You,

Amanda Mychal White

Mychal,

What a special young lady you have become! We are so proud to have you for a daughter. God truly blessed us June 11, 1983, when a dark-haired baby girl was born into the White family. You have brought us so much joy! We're so thankful God spared your life last December when you flipped your car. Great is His faithfulness and He has a special place for you!

We love you so much!

Dad, Mom, Amelia, and Jayda

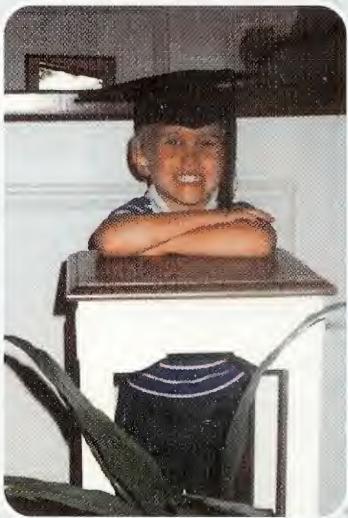

Mychal,

You have changed so much this past year. I'm so happy for you. I know you will go far, as long as you keep that independent attitude (ha). Thank you for being here to talk to and give advice. It feels good to know you care. You have been a big-little sister. I love you and I know you will go far, as long as you keep God first.

Love,

Amelia

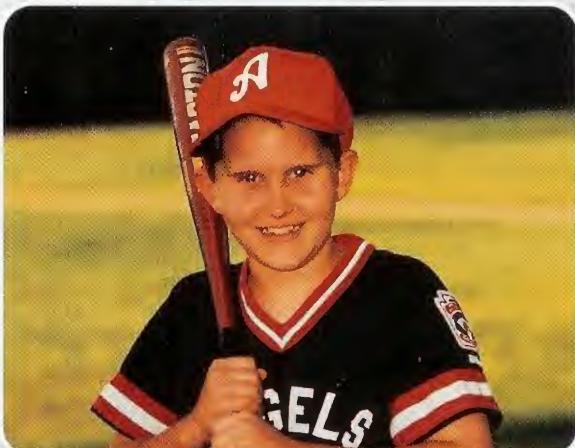

Danny Ecoff

Danny,

You were a wonderful miracle when you were born. As you grew, you gave us such joy and laughter. Now, you are a fine young man in whom we have such pride and for whom we have great respect. It is so hard to believe that your high school days are already over and that you are ready to move onto your own life adventure. We know you will do great things and that your kind nature will endear you to everyone you meet along the way. Just remember where "home" is and that no matter where you are, you will always continue to enrich our lives.

Dusty,

These last eighteen years have gone by way too fast! You will never know how much we have enjoyed them or how proud of you we are--until you are writing to your son or daughter. We have tried to always clear a path for you, so always remember the path will turn into a paved road if you will continue to trust God and do what is right. We love you very much.

Congratulations--We Are Proud of You!

Love,
Mom & Dad

Dusty,

You are at the start of a new day. Remember always the teachings of your youth and you will achieve much. I know this to be true, because you have never disappointed me in the past.

I love you,
Grandmother Dorothy

Sugar Lump,

I'm so proud of you and want you to remember that you can be anyone or do anything if you know what you want, find yourself, and get motivated with Faith in God. (Don't be "Tacky") HA HA.

Dusty,

The years have passed so fast. It's hard to believe you're a senior at last. So all I can say is "Move on, Big Dog--The little Dog's on the Way."

Love You
J. Hunter

Dusty,

I can't believe you're a "Big Senior"!! Time sure flies--That makes me how old? (never mind) If I could have had a choice in brothers, I couldn't have picked a better one than you. I am so proud of all your accomplishments.

In my eyes, you're perfect and I love you very much!

This is a special year--make the most of it! Good luck in everything you do and always know I'm here for you.

I Love You!

Christopher Blake Campbell

As they always say, "A little boy's dream is to fill his daddy's shoes (boots)!" - Ha Ha!

Blake,

Seventeen years ago, God gave us a very special gift. He gave us a beautiful baby boy and we named him "Christopher Blake." I can't tell you how happy we were the day we brought you home, because we had waited 10 years for you. Now it's so hard to believe the time has come to watch you walk down the aisle at "your" graduation. I look back and think of all the many times you have blessed our hearts and really made us proud. You have truly been a great child and we are so proud of you! Believe in yourself and have confidence in yourself and you can reach any goal you set. Always remember, God answers prayers! Don't forget to pray! We love you with all of our heart!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Matthew Thomas Pearcey

Matt,

Well, I can hardly believe that you have turned 18 and are graduating! It seems only yesterday that you were born. What a happy day it was for me, when I was old enough to have a baby. Then the greatest accomplishment of my life came when you came into my life. We chose the name Matthew for two reasons. It means a "Gift of God" which you truly are! And the other, you know "Matt" because of your Dad's hero -- Matt Dillon.

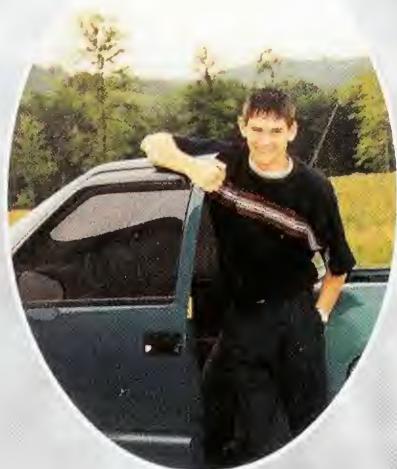

You are the kind of son every parent dreams of. You hold so many peoples hearts. You are kind, caring, a great friend to others, and an all-around great guy. I am so proud of you. I wish you the best of luck for now and in the future. I will do my part to help you get where you want to be in life, and you do your part to get there.

Life is hard, but you make it worth living. I love you.

Congratulations!

Mom*

P.S. Granny &

One of the most joyous and scariest times of our lives was on February 24th, 1983, at 7:28. Here you came into this world two months early, weighing only four pounds. They told us you might not make it, but you were a fighter and proved the doctors wrong.

We are so proud of everthing that you've accomplished in your life. You have always tried to do your best in everything that you've done. You are a very beautiful and dependable person, and we couldn't have asked for a better daughter.

Always keep your faith in God and remember we are always here for you. Good luck as you go to college; we know you will go far in life. We love you and you'll always be our little girl.

From a little boy to a grown young man-- where did the years go? I turned my head for only a moment from changing your diaper, to turn back and see you changing unto your tux!

I used to wipe your tears; now it's...No hugs, Mom, that's little boy's stuff. "Let's watch a movie, Son." No, Mom, I've got a girl on the phone! "Supper's ready Son." No,
Mom, I've got to meet the guys up town at J.A.'s. "You're late getting home, Son."
Mom, it's a girl, give me a break!

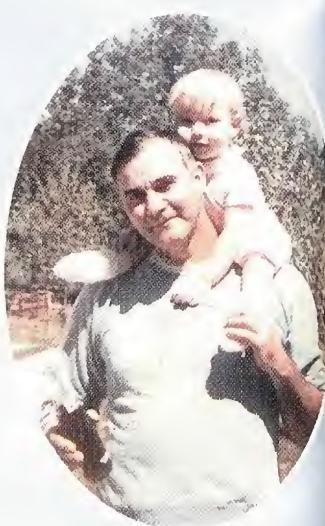

Now I watch you run out the door to your busy life, yet never forgetting to say:

I love ya, Mom! "I love you, Son."
Oh yeah, Mom, I graduate tonight.

I'm proud of you, Son, now and always.

Love,
Mom & Dad

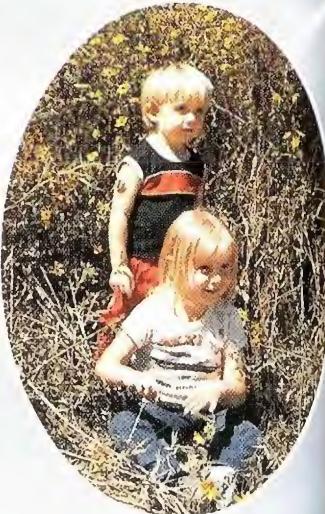

Shanus,

A miracle was born to us 18 years ago, with problems that weren't known. And we didn't even know if we would take you home, but through God's love and grace we brought you home to cherish and to love.

Although there have been heartaches and tears, troubles and trials, God gave us strength to climb the hills, and with His power we've stood the test of time. There will be other obstacles along the way, but God will guide us with each passing day.

You've grown into a beautiful girl ready to face the real world; you've made it these 13 years. I know you will continue to be successful if you will just believe in yourself. Trust in God and He will send you His abundant love.

Love,
Mama, Daddy,
& Wetzel

Most people think they'll always stay the same, but life's not just another Parker Brothers game. It's tough; no, it's really tough, letting go, I mean, of one of the greatest kids Mom and Dad have ever seen.

Thank you, Blaine, for being such a wonderful, loving son. We are very proud of you and enjoy each day more because of you.

May God continue to bless you, and may His ways and thoughts be yours.

Michael,

You made it! You went from being a sweet, adorable baby boy to a tall, handsome young man. I can't believe how fast it all happened; thank you for all the wonderful memories. You can do anything if you set your mind to it. I am so proud of you. Good luck. I will always be here for you.

I Love You,
Mom

Michael,
Thanks for being there for me.
Just remember if you ever need anything, I'll always be here for you.
Good luck in all you do.
Love always,
Lindsey

Michael,

When I was a child, I spake as a child. But when I became a man I put away childish things.

Life is so simple when you're a child. There's no worries, such as, will Mom and Dad be there when I need them? Will I have a place to stay when it's cold or raining? Will there be food when I'm hungry? Will someone tend to me when I'm too ill to tend to myself? It's called responsibility.

But when you become an adult, you do and should have many responsibilities. Now you are responsible for yourself. This will be a tough job. Many adults are not too good at it. And it brings many problems that can be overwhelming to an irresponsible person, one who is not ready, or one who cannot wisely choose an appropriate solution to a difficult situation. However, an adult earns some privileges that cannot be given to children who cannot be responsible to use them wisely. Only if an adult is responsible, does he earn these privileges. But it's a fair system. You get what you earn.

Then the rules change when you have children of your own: Now you have twice the responsibilities, and the rewards are not as tangible. Now the rewards are for the heart, and sometimes they can be the greatest of all.

Now it's your time. Reap the rewards you deserve.

Your Proud Father,
Dad

Michael,
Congratulations,
We're Proud of You.
Love,
Michael & Mandy

My Dearest Jennifer,

The day you have dreamed of and waited so long for is almost here: you can pack up and move out!

Just remember your life holds unlimited potential and wonderful dreams. You have the ability to attain whatever you seek; within you is every potential you can imagine. Always aim higher than you believe you can reach. So often, you'll discover that when your talents are set free by your imagination, you can achieve any goal.

If people offer their help or wisdom as you go through life, accept it gratefully. You can learn much from those who have gone before you. But never be afraid or hesitant to step off the accepted path and head off in your own direction if your heart tells you that it's the right way for you. Always believe that you will ultimately succeed at whatever you do, and never forget the value of persistence, discipline, and determination. You are meant to be whatever you dream of becoming.

As long as you remain as levelheaded as you are and keep God close to you, you will go far and be just fine while you make your journey through life.

Please also remember, as you go out on your own, how very much I love you and how proud I am of you. I will always be here for you and love you no matter what life brings to you. There is always a place for you at home.

I love you, Jenn
Mom

Dear Lord...

Thank you for my daughter
For her warm and loving ways
For every smile and tear we've shared
Since early childhood days
Thank you for her heart of gold
And the many ways she's grown
With faith and dreams
And stars to reach
And visions of her own.

Jenn Jenn, may the Lord's Grace be with you in all the goals you set in life.
I'm so proud of you.

I love you... Daddy

may not be
what you want to hear.
A best friend
knows all your secrets,
understands your fears shares your dreams.

A best friend
never stops believing in you even if you give up on yourself.

You are

Daddy's Little Girl

Leslie ... Daddy's little girl you'll always be, whether you're five, ten, twenty, thirty, or forty-three.

You have grown up oh, so fast, but the memories we've made — forever they'll last.

From the moment you were born on that special Easter Day, you captured my heart more than words could ever say.

Growing up, you gave us some scares and plenty of laughs, too, and changed my life forever as no one else could do.

A new kind of love only you could teach me, as Daddy's little girl; it is far more precious than any gold, diamonds, or pearls.

You're becoming independent and making decisions on your own, but always remember you will never, never be alone.

For no matter your age or where you live in this world, you will always be Daddy's little girl.

So please remember during good times or bad, when you need someone to turn to, you can count on your dad.

Daddy's little girl you will always be, whether you're five, ten, twenty, or forty-three!

Love Always & Forever,
Daddy

Leslie,

On April 3, 1983, God so richly blessed me with a beautiful daughter — you! He has continued to bless me for the last eighteen years with a daughter who has matured into a very responsible, caring young woman. You never cease to amaze me with the love you show toward Laura. Even Lee can depend on you to be there for him. You know you will always be "Sissy" to him.

Always hold your head high and you will attain the goals you set for yourself, and remember to keep Christ first in your heart.

As you journey through life, you will continue to bless those around you, whether they be senior citizens or toddlers. You have a precious gift with small children and should use this as you pursue your career.

May your life be richly blessed and remember — I will always love you!

Love,
Mama

Where have all the years gone? It seems like only yesterday it was kindergarten, birthday parties, jr. high dances, first dates, proms — and now it's time for you to graduate. Time has slipped away so fast. Our little girls are gone and two beautiful ladies take their place, each with her own personality and charm; ready to go their separate ways and challenge the world. We are so proud of you and of who you have become. Never let your dreams get too far from sight. We know that whatever you choose to do, you will do your very best.

Remember to always put Jesus first, and if you lose your way take the time to stop and pray. God said, "If you have faith as the grain of a mustard seed, you could move a mountain."

No words could ever express how much we love you both. Just remember that our love is bigger than anything you will ever face and that we will always be here for you.

We love you very much!!

Mary,

We want to tell you that we love you and are very proud of you. You're a senior now, and it's so true how time seems to pass by so quickly. We will miss you when you go away to college — it just won't be the same without you here.

Mary, you are an intelligent young lady, you possess a strong will, you are full of many positive attributes, and you have a loving personality — these will get you as far in life as you desire to go. Just chart your course of direction, always remember the Lord, remember who you are, and be persistent when at all possible. Never let the negatives of this life change your course of direction and you will achieve your goals!

Love,

Brooke,

Thanks for all the laughs, cries, and memories! It's been a great four years of high school. I'm glad we have become such close friends. Always remember I'm here if you need me, and never let the distance come between us. I thank God for giving me such a wonderful friend!

Love you,
Stephanie

Stephanie,

You have been such a wonderful friend and I don't know how to thank you. You have always been there for me whether to lend a shoulder to cry on or simply for a hug when nothing else would help. I'll always be here for you no matter how far apart life takes us. I wish you the best of luck in everything you do.

Love you,
Brooke

You and I have shared a bond
for all these many years
As friends, we've walked together
sharing laughter, joy, and tears

Though time may pass
and things may change
I'm sure you will agree
That one thing will stay the same —
each other's loyalty
No matter what the future brings
one thing I know is true
I have a very special friend
as long as I have you.

Choosing a career is an important step in your life
What a big decision you have to make!!
Ask yourself this important question:
What do I want to do & what can I do best?

You (Coloring Book) have many different qualities & talents
You know certain areas where you excel
You need to use the gifts you have

Enjoy what you do & always do your best.

Congratulations
graduates!

If tomorrow never comes,
Would I be willing to go.
Could I say that I was ready
To end this picture show.
Would there be words unsaid
And emotions unexpressed;
Tears unshed
And confessions unconfessed.
Did I learn everything I could
With my friends by my side.
Did I always do my best,
Or did I just run and hide.
Could I say to my Lord,
"I've done everything
You've asked me to."
Could I stand before Him
And know it was true.
To my graduating friends,
This is my hope for you:
That you'll be ready
When the time comes,
That you'll know
The right thing to do.
We might not
Have learned everything,
Or made the best grade.
But that's not what
We're gonna remember;
Some things will fade.
You'll remember smiles and jokes,
And never forget
Mr. Wright's study hall.
You'll remember the look
On your friend's face
When you made
That prank phone call.
The crazy pep rallies
And all the football games.
For the guys, the single cheerleaders,
You couldn't remember all
The phone numbers and names.
I know times may get tough
And money may be tight.
Just remember in the darkness
What you learned in the light.

Free @ Last!

Guess what, my friends –
we are on our own;
now we are sitting
and waiting impatiently
for what awaits us – life.
Our souls are full and ripe;
we could never be more ready.
Looking back on the last few days,
I wonder if we have lived our lives for everything we have worked for during these last few years.
Now and again, we find ourselves down,
for reasons untold and unavoidable,
but then again, also inexcusable.

We leave this place with things taught to us in classrooms
and through nights out on the town.
Lessons that are going to make us
and take their toll from here on out.
Many paths await us – choose the right one,
or the consequences will leave their mark
and change us forever as we retire and go our separate ways.

More school, work, and changing lives await us tomorrow, and these will change attitudes and preconceived notions due to ignorance and contemplated mortality.
As we wait for the gifts of life
to land at our feet and congratulate ourselves on the work we did not compensate, and meet with realistic stories and people who lead us to believe truths beyond our present understanding,
we will stand in astonishment.

My friends, what I am talking about is we are about to take on the world head first;
thinking we're ready is wrong and inane.
We have yet to experience what our future
will witness to us, through the years ahead.
We are immature, like it or not,
and this moment that we are speaking can and shall alter our existence.
Our time is done, the world is ours,
tomorrow will too soon be forgotten;
wish, believe, and pray for things to come.
